COVERS

FRONT COVER: A sandy Gulf of Mexico island, calm seas, and a beautiful biplane; what more could an antique-airplane buff desire? This is John Corradi and his 1942 Waco ZPF-7, which he enjoys flying both at the Flying Circus Aerodrome in Bealeton, Virginia, and as part of his very own company, Blue Ridge Biplanes. For more information, contact him at www.blueridgebiplanes.com or check out the website at www.flyingcircusairshow.com. EAA photo by EAA's chief photographer, Jim Koepnick; EAA Cessna 210 photo plane flown by Bruce Moore.

BACK COVER: Randall Mytar of Sherman Oaks, California, is the artist who created the watercolor painting depicting an American Airlines Ford Tri-Motor, titled "Father's First Flight." Entered in the 2006 EAA Sport Aviation Art Competition, the jury selected it to receive an Honorable Mention ribbon in the Open category. Randall tells us the painting is available for sale, as are a very limited set of prints. You can contact him at 818-789-7719 or e-mail at phadseew@aol.com.
