BACK COVER: "Hungarian Ace Franz Graser and the Eagle Owl Albatros" is the title of this mixed media illustration by EAA Master Artist William Marsalko. Here's his description of the painting: A number of Albatros D.III were built for the Austro-Hungarian fighter squadrons by the Austrian Oeffag factory. These machines were fitted with Austro-Daimler engine and gave excellent service. This aircraft, 153.44 was flown by Franz Graser at "Flik 42-J," shown in this painting shooting down an Italian seaplane on November 23, 1917.
