COVERS

FRONT COVER: The Waco INF is a great favorite of many biplane aficionados, and this one in particular is even more special; it's the prototype of the model! See Marcia "Sparky" Barnes' article on this award-winning antique biplane, starting on page 10. EAA photo by Bonnie Kratz, EAA photo plane flown by Bruce Moore in EAA's C-210 near Green Lake.

BACK COVER: If you can't be the first one, then be the oldest one flying! This Canadian-built DHC-1 Chipmunk was the eleventh one built, and spent its early days in England, being evaluated by DeHavilland in England. The DHC-1 was built to replace the beloved Tiger Moth. This one now resides in Canada, where it flies with UK registration. See Budd Davisson's article beginning on page 18.
