FRONT COVER A fantastic definition of the term "personal airplane." Restored and updated to his personal taste and requirements, author Budd Davisson tells the story of Duane Oosterhuis' Luscombe Silvaire. EAA photo by Bonnie Kratz.

BACK COVER: The all-wood Topsy Trainer I, built in 1939, is a sharp looking side-by-side training aircraft built by Topsy Aircraft Co., Ltd of Hanworth, Middlesex. G-AFWT is serial number 13 of the handful built just prior to the start of World War II. There are currently four of the type currently registered in Great Britain. Powered by a 62 hp Walter Micron engine, this fine example is owned by Nick Parkhouse. Photo by David Macready.
