BACK COVER: This original illustration of the Bugatti 100 racer is on loan to the EAA Museum thanks to the owner, Marc Boegner, a grandson of one of Ettore Bugatti's employees. Other than the fact that the illustration was produced prior to the actual construction of the airplane, little is known about the artist, A. Lambert, or if the illustration was also reproduced in print form. It certainly evokes the sensation of speed and streamlined purpose of the proposed racer!
